Derrick Davis is Principal and founding partner of Informatic Concepts, a full-service staffing firm devoted to aligning the career goals of their talent with organizational goals of their clients. Prior to launching Informatic Concepts, he honed his skills by serving in various senior sales and leadership roles with AT&T Wireless, Randstad, and Astellas Pharma. With a firm belief that three things are multipliers for success — a laser focus on talent, building strong relationships, and giving back to the community — Derrick currently serves on various non-profit, government and private enterprise boards. He is especially committed to making sure minority businesses always have a seat at the table.

Connect

Derrick holds a Bachelor of Arts in Organizational Communications from Saint Augustine's University. In his spare time, he is a health and wellness enthusiast, culture expert, and restaurant goer who is always looking for his next new music fixation.
