James Hamlin is currently the Supplier Diversity and Performance Lead at American Tire Distributors helping lead the Supplier Diversity Initiative since August of 2020. With over 10 years of experience in sourcing mostly in pricing analytics, James has worked for industry leading companies like Premier, Inc and Compass Group.

He spent over six years working at Premier, Inc a healthcare GPO on strategic categories like physical therapy, computer hardware and software. During his time with Compass Group he worked for the Foodbuy division helping run analytics for key agreements in dairy foods and bottled water, currently he's helped negotiate over $1M in savings over the past year with ATD in business units from transportation to facilities and professional services.

With a background from distribution to healthcare James has cultivated a diverse skillset across many categories with experience presenting to various levels of management.
