Regional Vice President | Business Development

Michelle Isabel is Vice President of Partner To Empower, a program to support Black- and minority-owned business owners and entrepreneurs with resources imperative for growing a business and opening an IRL store. Her proudest professional achievement was the first launch of Partner To Empower in May 2021. This program provides:

- business planning and guidance
- networking opportunities with community experts
- financial support for store build-outs
- a four-week Retail Workshop led by industry insiders
