

Troy T. McClain, II
Troy T. McClain II Enterprises
Author. Speaker. Political Activist.
Mentor. Trainer

Carolinas-Virginia
Minority Supplier
Development Council

Troy is a captivating author, speaker, political activist, mentor and trainer who specializes in shifting mindsets from mediocrity to greatness. In 2015 he wrote and published his 1st book called, "I Want it All; Practical Principles to Living Your Best Life Now." In his book he shares his powerful testimony of how he overcame obstacles and challenges faced in school and life despite being labeled with a learning disability and failing three times. He is a 2017 Graduate of Liberty University where he obtained a bachelor's degree in religion minoring in Christian Counseling. His strong belief in education pushed him to obtain his Diversity & Inclusion certification from Cornell University. In addition, he also completed his John Maxwell certification rendering him a John Maxwell Certified team member. Troy is an expert at providing interactive, engaging tools for schools and organizations that have resulted in changed behavior, greater self-confidence and most importantly, an increased graduation rate among male students. Troy has served in various capacities in his community to include but not limited to being a radio personality on WSPQ Heaven 100.1fm every day from 3- 8pm pre-pandemic as well as volunteering annually as a Toys for Tots ambassador hosting toy drives to provide children with Christmas magic and the list goes on.

In 2016 he and a dear friend launched "The Awakening Series." which once a month highlighted local black owned businesses to bring exposure and awareness to their business but even greater give them a platform to inspire and motivate aspiring entrepreneurs to go after their dreams of opening a business as well.

Troy's story drives his passion to inspire, motivate, train and equip others to believe IT IS POSSIBLE! It's not about how you start but how you finish. Troy has spoken extensively to various schools and organizations across the Southeastern Region of the United States and abroad traveling to Haiti on several occasions to serve there as well. His relentless passion to serve has been noted and celebrated yielding him several awards through the years for his consistent dedication to the community.

Troy is a native of Charleston and being the second oldest child of seven, his faith and family are the glue that keeps him grounded. His commitment and dedication to his community inspired him to launch his very own non-profit called "The I AM Foundation" which he founded in 2013 and is now known as Legacy Builders Org. His focus is to cultivate and culminate the greatness that lies within our youth with a mission of encouraging education, career development as well as formulating strategies that will impact and reshape not only local communities but our nation and ultimately, the world. In October of 2018 he proudly became a member of the greatest fraternity The Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity, Inc. In that same year he also graduated from The Clyburn Fellowship. Troy then went on and served as the South Carolina Democratic Party Regional Field Director and recently worked for two Presidential campaigns. He continues to strive to be the change he wants to see and works effortlessly to ensure our youth are presented with amazing opportunities. Troy believes that no matter how much success he accomplishes; success is not success until the successful successfully births successors.